

Bidaya – Arabic for Beginning, Fresh Start

The Bidaya center offers necessary support for people who are at risk of religiously motivated radicalization or are already in the process of radicalization, to help them make a new start.

Goals

- Recognition of religious radicalization and counteracting it
- Support for young people in distancing themselves from extremist positions and developing alternative perspectives for their lives.
- Increase competence and confidence for pedagogical professionals in child and youth welfare and schools as well as relevant community actors
- Reduction of Islamophobia and hostility towards Muslims through education about religion and cultural diversity

Lectures, workshops and training

In your everyday life, specific questions arise, such as:

- What exactly is Islam?
- How do I behave when confronted with another culture?
- What is the difference between Islam and Islamism?
- How do I recognize radicalization, and how do I deal with it?

In our lectures, workshops and training sessions we will address these and other questions in depth.
